FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YWCA Hartford Assumes Ownership of Mother Goose in South Windsor

South Windsor, CT – YWCA Hartford Region assumes ownership of YWCA Mother Goose Child Development Center on Monday, October 1. The childcare center is located at 1742 Ellington Rd, South Windsor, CT 06074

Enrollment for new families is open with applications being accepted beginning Monday, October 1. Spaces are available for infants, toddlers, preschoolers and before and after school students through 5th grade. YWCA Mother Goose will be open year-round, Monday – Friday from 7:00 AM – 5:30 PM.

“YWCA has a long history of providing high quality childcare in the greater Hartford region and we are happy to continue this tradition with YWCA Mother Goose,” YWCA CEO Adrienne W. Cochrane, J.D. said. “We are fully committed to serving South Windsor area children and families.”

YWCA has over 60 years’ experience of educating and caring for children in the greater Hartford region. YWCA currently operates four NAEYC accredited Early Learning Centers, located in East Hartford, Hartford, Manchester and West Hartford. YWCA’s knowledgeable and caring staff is committed to the education and development of each child. The staff and curriculum focus on each child’s individual development, providing daily learning activities which support the development and mastery of skills across the developmental domains (cognitive, social, physical and emotional developmental stages).
